Deacon Charles H. Canada

After a long healthy life and an illness of two years, Deacon Charles H. Canada, 83, passed into sweet slumber Dec. 15, 1979 at 8 a.m., at the Lynchburg General Marshall Lodge Hospital in Lynchburg.

He was a retired farmer and a son of the late David P. and Sally Armistead Canada. He was one of eight children born to the Canada family. At an early age he confessed profound faith in Jesus Christ and join the St. Luke Baptist Church where he remained a member until his death. For many years he was active in the church as a member of the Board of Deacons, Superintendent of the church school, vice-president of the St. Luke Church Choir, and on the Finance and Banking committee for the church.

Mr. Canada until his passing, was grandmaster of the Scotishright Masons of Hat Creek Lodge.

When his home place went up for sale, he bought it so that his father and other family members could have a place to live.

He was an employed person at the Bethlehem Steel Works in Baltimore, Md. until such time as when he decided to return home to his farm to do business for himself. He return home and in March of 1921, he and Mrs. Louise Elliott Canada, were married and have lived together for 58 years.

Mrs. Canada was always interested in helping the under - priviledged children. With his help they went all out to help children in those circumstances by taking them into their home and caring for them the best they could. During that time 18 children passed through the home.

In the community he was helpful and kind and made many business friends with both races. For a number of years he raised and sold farm products in Lynchburg. His customers respected him for his honesty. He became interested in stock and would buy and sell cattle at the stock market. He also sold raw milk for a short time. He believed in prosperity and a square deal.

He bore his illness with much quietness and patience. One day while lying on his bed at home he said out very loud, "Be ye also ready for ye know not the day or hour the Son of Man cometh." His favorite songs were "High Ground" and "The Old Ship of Zion".

Those left to miss him are his wife, Mrs. Louise M. Canada, a son, Samuel Canada, a later son, Travis Younger, a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Anna Canada, five grandchildren, four great grandchildren; three granddaughters-in-law, two sisters, Mrs. Francis Robinson, Baltimore, Md., Mrs. Elizabeth Reed, of Burkesville; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Beulah Jones, of Pittsburg, Pa., and Miss Mary Elliott of New York and many nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

Because he was a good husband and kind father and grandfather and bore his illness with much quietness. We feel that he is at rest. We say farewell husband, father and grandfather, The Family.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Dec. 20 at 3 p.m. from St. Luke Baptist Church, with Rev. James E. McLaughlin officiating.

Retiring employee honored

Junius Davis, of Pamplin, became the first retiree of Appomattox's Armstrong Furniture Plant on January 3, after five years of service.

Junius has been with Armstrong since Nov. 4, 1974 and has been in Quality Control as a Finish Inspector for most of that time.

Junius's fellow employees honored him with a party at the plant. He also received certificates commemorating four years of perfect attendenge. All of Junius's friends at the plant wish him good luck in the years ahead.

State conservationist retires after 37 years

David N. Grimwood retires January 12, 1980, from the Soil Conservation Service after thirty-seven years of service with the Federal Government.

Grimwood joined the Soil Conservation Service (SCS) in December 1945. He held several positions with SCS in Kentucky before transferring to New York as the State Soil Conservationist in 1961. From New York he transferred in June 1964 to Burlington, Vermont as Assistant State Conservationist. He was promoted to the position of State Conservationist for Vermont in January 1967. In June 1971, he was promoted and transferred to the position of State Conservationist for SCS in Virginia.

Succeeding Grimwood will be Manly S. Wilder, Deputy State Conservationist in Pennsylvania. Wilder, a native of North Carolina, began his SCS career in 1960 in that state. He held several positions in North Carolina before transferring to Washington, D. C. in 1967 where he served SCS as an Employee Relations Specialist, Personnel Staffing Specialist and as Chief of the Employee Relations Branch and the Career Development and Staffing Branch. He became Deputy State Conservationist for Pennsylvania in March 1975. He will assume the position of State Conservationist for Virginia on January 13, 1980.

Forest fires decrease

The number of forest fires in Southside Virginia's timberlands has been low this year. There were 105 forest fires in 1979 as compared to the 5 year average number of 132 fires per year.

The Farmville District of the Division of Forestry, covering ten counties in this area, has had 105 fires which burned 242 forested acres, compared to 153 fires covering 471 forested acres in 1978.

Forest wardens who enforce the forest fire laws reported only 34 violations of the spring 4 p.m. burning law. Cooperation from the public in reporting fires and a quick attack by volunteer fire departments, forest wardens and volunteers, kept the average size of the fire to a low figure of 2.3 acres. Volunteer fire departments extinguished many fires before they endangered forest land.

Amelia County had 5 fires burning 10 acres. Appomattox County had 7 fires burning 6 acres. Buckingham County had 14 fires burning 69 acres. Campbell County had 32 fires burning 91 acres. Charlotte County had 5 fires burning 18 acres. Cumberland County had 8 fires burning 4 acres. Halifax County had 13 fires burning 10 acres. Lunenburg had 4 fires burning 2 acres. Nottoway County had 5 fires burning 7 acres. Prince Edward County had 12 fires burning 26 acres.

Terry Woods slips by a Rustburg defender to score one of his nine points in Monday night's varsity victory.

Raiders drop Red Devils 61-50, take third place

A 40-point second half and a 21-for-26 performance at the freethrow line led the Appomattox High School basketball Raiders to a 61-50 victory over the Rustburg Red Devils Monday in the Appomattox gym.

Larry Kelso's 24-point performance helped lift the Raiders from a 27-21 deficit at the half. Shane Abernathy's 10 points, Terry Woods' 9, Marvin Johnson's 7, Steve Cobb's 6 and Kim Humbles' five points completed the Raiders' scoring.

"We got excellent play out of everyone on the bench," Crawford said. "Ron Carter did an excellent job, and Steve Cobb and Terry Woods played a solid floor game, controlling the ball well."

"We played a poor first half," Crawford continued, "especially the second quarter." The Raiders scored only five points in the second period. At the half, the Red Devils were leading by a score of 27-21.

"Patience and consistency in moving the ball were key factors in our comeback in the second half," the coach continued.

"Our man-to-man defense really shut Rustburg down in the second half. Also, we got more rebounds. They (Rustburg) were getting a lot of offensive rebounds in the first half."

The home team outscored Rustburg 19-8 in the third quarter, however, and a 21-point fourth quarter, with Rustburg scoring only 15 points, iced the cake for the Appomattox team.

The victory raises the Raiders' record to 6-2 overall and 5-2 in the Seminole district, and puts them in third place. The Raiders were scheduled to play Amherst Tuesday night after the Times-Virginian deadline.

Rustburg, which entered Monday's game with a 3-3 overall record and 3-1 in the district, now stands at 3-4 overall and 3-2 in the district.

SPORTS

For Rustburg, Thurmond Lewis scored 18 points, Charles Jackson scored 10, Lincoln Wood scored 7, Ken Anthony 6, Mike Payne 5, and Randy Bowles scored 4 points.

Each team scored on 20 field goal attempts. The difference was in the shooting at the foul line: Appomattox's 21 for 26 (80.76 percent) compared with Rustburg's 10-for-14 performance from the line.

On defense, Abernathy excelled with 10 rebounds. Coach Jim Crawford also cited Marvin Johnson for his eight rebounds and three steals, as well as Larry Kelso for his six rebounds and four steals.

The Raiderettes were behind from the beginning, with the score standing at 10-4 following the first quarter, and at 24-16 at the half. The local team pulled to within seven points of the Rustburg team at the end of the third quarter, with the score of 54-33.

Cindy Lewis led Rustburg scorers with 13 points, and Amanda Jackson tallied 10 in the Devilettes' victory.

The loss brings the Raiderettes' record to 3-3 in the district, and 4-5 overall.

Annette Carter, Johnna Belter and Ruby Smith all scored in double figures to lead the girls to a 40-38 victory over E. C. Glass last week.

Behind 10-4 after the first quarter, the Appomattox team came back with a 12-point surge to lead 16-14 at the half. E. C. Glass fought back to take a one-point advantage at the end of the third quarter, however, when the score stood at 27-26.

The local team outscored E. C. Glass 14-11 in the fourth quarter, however, providing the two-point victory margin.

Scoring honors in the game went to Carter, with 13 points. Ruby Smith had 11 points, and Belter scored 10.

Debbie Smith, Susan Handy and Karen Johnson each scored two points to complete scoring for the Raiderettes.

The girls were scheduled to play Amherst and Tuesday after the Times-Virginian deadline, and the Heritage game, originally scheduled for Wednesday, has been postponed until Jan. 22.

Greg kills his first deer

Greg Martin celebrated the last day of the year with a bang! He killed his first deer.

He loves to hunt with his daddy and older brothers and is quite a good little hunter.

Greg is the 8-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Martin of Pamplin.

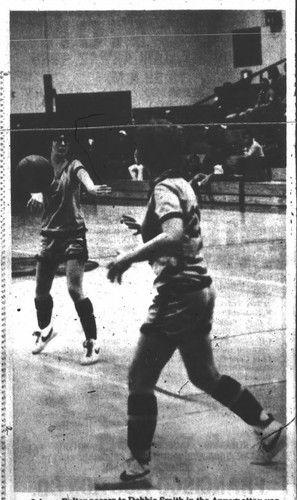
Girls fall to Rustburg, defeat E.C. Glass

A powerful Rustburg team handed the Appomattox varsity girls basketball team its fifth defeat 54-33 Monday, following an Appomattox victory over E. C. Glass, Jan. 2.

Forward Annette Carter led the Raiderettes' scoring Monday with 13 points, including six field goals and 3-for-4 from the freethrow line.

Ruby Smith also scored in double figures, with three field goals and six of eight free throws.

Susan Hand scored six points, and Johnna Belter and Karen Johnson each had a point to complete the Raiderettes' scoring.



Johnna Belter passes to Debbie Smith in the Appomattox varsity Raiderettes' loss to Rustburg Monday night. The loss brought the local team's record to 3-3 in the district, 4-5 overall.
